Certificate of Compliance

Regarding Hazardous Substances Specified in the RoHS Directive

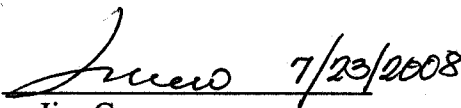

We certify that all Mindspeed Technologies, Inc ("Mindspeed") products that are marked with a capital letter "G" after the base part number and before the dash number meet the requirements and the threshold limits of the six hazardous substances specified in the Directive 2002/95/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 January 2003 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (the "RoHS Directive"), as amended by the Commission Decision of 18 August 2005 (the "Commission Decision"). The maximum allowable concentration values of the six hazardous substances in homogeneous materials specified in the Commission Decision is 0.1% by weight for lead, mercury, hexavalent chromium, polybrominated biphenyls, (PBB) and polybrominated diphenyl ethers (PBDE) including Deca/Octa-BDE and 0.01% by weight for cadmium.

Mindspeed further certifies that it has taken reasonable steps to collect accurate package material information from third party suppliers, but Mindspeed may not have conducted destructive testing or chemical analysis on incoming materials and chemicals. As such, Mindspeed makes no independent representations or warranty, expressed or implied, and assumes no liability in connection with the use of this information.
